++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine and showers today. Warm in the sunshine.

Today:
After a chilly start, it will be another day of sunshine and showers. However, the majority of the showers are likely to be towards the east over Norfolk and Suffolk. Fewer showers elsewhere and more in the way of sunshine. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
Any showers will fade away to leave a largely dry night, with some clear spells. Turning chilly initially before cloud and rain arrives from the south by dawn. Freshening winds. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Saturday:
Cloud and rain, heavy at times, will spread northwards across all parts during the day. The rain will be accompanied by strong winds, with local gales possible. Rain clearing overnight. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mostly fine and dry, with sunny spells on Sunday. Feeling warmer. However, risk of thundery showers developing later. Further showers on Monday and Tuesday and feeling cooler.
